What is an Early College High School?

- An innovative program that allows students entering 9th grade to receive an Associate of Arts through a partnership with Texas Southmost College (TSC).
- Students have the opportunity to earn a high school diploma and up to an associate degree (two years of college) in four years.
- The degree and all costs associated are FREE to students!

Benefits to students:

- Access to college at no cost
- Tuition free
- College textbooks at no cost
- Creates a direct college path; students taking dual classes are generating college credits which they can take with them to their future school of choice
- Graduate from College before graduating from high school
- ECHS Students participate in all amenities and programs at the high school
- Students will be prepared for the academic rigor of university level courses
- Support from school district and high school staff
- Academic
- Social Emotional
- Cost savings to student and families between $7,700 - $100,464

Why is ECHS essential to La Feria ISD?

- ECHS improves high school graduation rates and college and career readiness
- Eases the transitions for students from high school to college by blending high school and college curriculum into a cohesive unit
- Provides a personalized and supportive program for students through a closely aligned partnership between high school and college
